

The Counting House

Private Day Nursery

Dear Parent

Thank you for your recent enquiry and taking time to find out more about our Nursery.

We hope that all the information provided within this pack will not only provide you with more of an insight to the Nursery environment and our philosophies, but also answers some of the questions you may have about placing your child in our care.

We genuinely believe at The Counting House that “every child matters” and that the children are the focus of everything we do. We are constantly striving to ensure that the time your child spends with us is a happy period of their life and that they have rewarding and enjoyable experiences. Allowing them many opportunities to develop into a confident, sociable and well-rounded child.

Placing a child in a Nursery can seem like a very difficult decision and we hope to make that decision much more comfortable for you by providing you with every assurance that you or your child may need. Therefore please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any further queries, questions or concerns.

We very much look forward to welcoming you and your child into The Counting House Nursery very soon.

Kindest regards

Amanda & Antony Lee
